SMOOTHIE/JUICE BAR

Pulp
1962 San Marco Blvd., San Marco (396-9222);
3645 St Johns Ave., Avondale (379-6908)

Having a craving for something sweet, but trying to eat clean? Pulp has a healthy and fresh way to do both: smoothies, juices, frozen yogurt, coffee, tea, organic beer and wine and a few breakfast items like steel-cut oats and acai bowls. Organic beer is healthy, right?

gluten allergy. More and more restaurants are offering up bowls of organic, fresh and local...

keep kids satisfied, while more adult-friendly eats, such as Eggs on the Bayou (poached eggs on grilled English muffins with bacon, omelette, hollandaise, sliced tomatoes and green onions) offer something a little more sophisticated. Though the focus here is on breakfast, lunch is a popular option, too (choose from classic diner eats like tuna melts and turkey pitas).

HIPSTER TOWN

Brew
1024 Park St., Five Points (374-5789)

This year is the first time we've included this category and our readers totally got it. BREW is a low-key Five Points spot where patrons can have a corporate coffee shop.

SPORTS BAR

Sneakers
111 Beach Blvd., Jacksonville Beach (482-1000); 8133 Point Meadows Dr., Southside (519-0509)

Giant HD projection screens, dozens of TVs, a wide selection of beer and hearty pub grub like classic burgers, nachos and wings—when it comes to a sports bar, what more do you really need? The latter eatery is popular with sports fanatics and normal people alike and also offers occasional trivia nights.

KIDS' MENU

The Loop
Multiple locations, including 2014 San Marco Blvd., San Marco (399-5667)

The Loop's kids' menu sticks to the basics, offering only four items: one-topping pizza, chicken tenders, cheeseburger or mac and cheese. But we're pretty sure those are the four food groups in kids' eyes. Perhaps best of all, all items are under five bucks.

FOOD TRUCK

Happy Grilled Cheese
