

Loop Pizza Grill opens new Florida location

Oct. 21, 2015

The Loop Pizza Grill announced its new location in the Nocatee Town Center at 101 Marketside Avenue in Ponte Vedra, Florida, is now open.

"This is a perfect place because it is family-focused," said Maurilio Gonzalez, Loop franchisee. "People are able to walk, ride their bikes or drive their golf cart to our new location."

The new Loop at Nocatee is 3,200 square feet and seats 130, according to a company press release. It also has a covered patio.

This is Gonzalez's third Loop Pizza Grill location. He also has franchises in Neptune Beach and Julington Creek, Florida. He plans to open two additional Loop locations on the First Coast in the next few years, the release stated.

"We want to congratulate Maurilio on opening his latest Loop location," said Mike Schneider, Loop co-founder and owner. "Nocatee is thriving and the residents are just as excited as we are for The Loop to become part of the community."

The Loop Pizza Grill has 14 locations in two states.
